Dear Kevin,

I want to express my sincerest thanks for giving a very inspirational Commencement address. We are very grateful to have had you—many faculty and guests indicated that they thought that your message spoke to every single person in the audience in one way or another. I can say without hesitation that I have received more positive feedback on your commencement address than any since I have served as Dean.

Your address served as the perfect transition as many of our students either continue their education or pursue careers in various health-related fields. You captivated the audience and delivered a wonderful message that they will certainly remember.

I wish you continued success with your career and look forward to working with you in the near future.

Warmest regards,
